An important and respected voice for progressive Christianity for more than 20 years, John Shelby Spong integrates his often controversial stands on the Bible, Jesus, theism and morality into an intelligible creed that speaks to today's thinking Christian.

Bishop Spong is the author of 17 best-selling books including Rescuing the Bible from Fundamentalism, Living in Sin?, Born of a Woman, This Hebrew Lord, Why Christianity Must Change or Die, and an autobiography, Here I Stand.

Now retired as the Episcopal Bishop of Newark, NJ, John Shelby Spong is currently a visiting lecturer at Harvard University. Labeled a heretic by some, and a God-send by others, John Shelby Spong continues to emerge as one of the leading spokespersons in the Western world for an enlightened Christianity.

Holly Near is a unique combination of entertainer, teacher, and activist. An immense vocal talent, Holly's career as a singer spans 30 years and boasts more than 20 recordings. Her career and her life have been profoundly defined by an unwillingness to separate her passion for music from her passion for human dignity.

A peace activist and advocate for human and civil rights, Holly has linked the multitude of issues that are our lives, refusing the idea of separate "causes." Touring worldwide, Holly Near is an ambassador for peace, inviting the audience to its best self as she brings to the stage an integration of world consciousness, spiritual discovery, and theatricality.

Out of this gentle, vibrant woman come a huge voice, a unique sense of humor, and a startling power. Come and be inspired by Holly, whose integrity earns her the reputation as one of the most powerful and articulate political artists of our time.

(K1) CHOOSING LIFE: PASSIONATE LEADERSHIP VS. MANDATORY CONFORMITY

How do we stay authentic and prophetic without going crazy? How do we stay passionate in a system that requires lukewarmness? Sharon Rader and Janet Ellinger reflect on living well in the midst of conflicting covenants.

*Bishop Sharon Zimmerman Rader, Wisconsin Annual Conference, Sun Prairie, WI
Rev. Janet Ellinger, River Falls, WI*

(K2) "ESTHER PUT ON HER ROYAL ROBES": FINDING VOICE IN SILENCING CULTURES

" ♪ Sit down. You're rockin' the boat ♪ " How do you stand up and speak in a culture that tells you to sit down and keep quiet? Im Jung and Debbie Skenadore share their experiences of finding their voices in places where women are often silenced.

*Debbie Skenadore, Oneida WI
Rev. Im Jung, Oneida, WI*

(K3) ANANIAS AND SAPPHIRA DROPPED DEAD: ECONOMIC JUSTICE IN A SOCIETY OF AFFLUENCE

Jesse DeWitt will help us to tell the truth about our economic realities and to begin the shift to a world where everyone has enough and no one has too much.

Bishop Jesse DeWitt, Retired, Ann Arbor, MI

(K4) A TIME TO LEAVE ... A TIME TO STAY: DIFFERENT RESPONSES TO GENERAL CONFERENCE 2000

Jeanne Audrey Powers and John Kruse agree that the church's position on homosexuality is unjust. These long-time friends will discuss their faithful, but different, responses to this injustice.

*Rev. Dr. Jeanne Audrey Powers, Minneapolis, MN
Rev. John Kruse, Madison, WI*

(K5) WHO ARE MY SPIRITUAL SISTERS AND BROTHERS?: FINDING CONNECTIONS ACROSS BOUNDARIES

Judy Crain will lead a discussion on faithful living in the context of religious diversity and pluralism. In seeking common ground, we will look not only beyond denominational limits but across faith boundaries as well.

Judy Crain, Green Bay, WI

(K6) AND A REMNANT WILL BE GATHERED: A CHURCH OF RESISTANCE

We dream of a "Church of Resistance" which will provide a network of support and strategy for individuals and congregations whose vision of inclusiveness is at odds with the denomination. Greg Dell & Sue Laurie will guide us in a deeper exploration of a movement which will call to life a multi-issued, expansively welcoming church.

*Rev. Greg Dell, Chicago, IL
Susan Laurie, Reconciling Ministries Network Staff, Edinboro, PA*

(K7) THE WORD IS LIFE: BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION

Progressive Christians are often accused of being biblically illiterate. Judy Craig and Hazelyn McComas will remind us that it just ain't so. Come be renewed by the biblical foundation upon which progressive Christians stand.

*Bishop Judith Craig, Retired, Powell, OH
Hazelyn McComas, Whitefish Bay, WI*

(K8) HOLY BOLDNESS AND CRAZY COURAGE: THE LIVING ROOM PROJECT

Power is a loaded word, especially for women, but its simple definition is the ability to act. The Living Room Project connects women with one another around the issues, values, and experiences that shape their lives. Kate Peyton will describe this program and inspire you to start a "Living Room Project" of your own.

Kate Peyton, Executive Director, The Living Room Project, Madison, WI

(K9) "FIRST BE RECONCILED": HEARING THE PAINFUL TRUTH OF RACISM

Velma Smith will discuss the economic and spiritual consequences of racism and then offer hope for building just and inclusive communities.

Rev. Dr. Velma Smith, Metro North District Superintendent, Milwaukee, WI

(K10) FROM CAPTIVITY TO THE PROMISED LAND: TRANSITION HAS A COST

"Things have got to change!" We say it. We believe it. But how will change impact one's self and soul? Change brings a process of transition involving grief, being "in-between" and engagement with what is new. Elaine Olson will help us explore these challenging dynamics.

Elaine Olson, Eau Claire, WI
